ABOUT KPEF

The Kings Park Education Foundation is a non-profit, tax-exempt entity with a Board of Trustees committed to attracting, managing and distributing monies and resources to implement educational programs and projects. The Board of Trustees includes community members, the PTA and school district staff.

The state's rising educational standards have created a need for additional resources for students in Kings Park. The Foundation will allow the provision of enriching and enhancing academic, recreational and cultural experiences for our students without affecting taxes.

The funds raised by the foundation will be used solely for educational activities and infrastructure enhancements within the Kings Park Central School District. Donations will help fund projects and programs that would not have been possible with the school's annual budget.

Anyone can participate in the Foundation's initiatives. Those interested are asked to volunteer time, talent, and resources to support the programs that are sponsored by the Foundation throughout the year. We invite students, parents, community members, teachers, administrators and staff to help us. Contributions are tax deductible.

OUR HONOREES

Michael V. Racanelli Vice President Racanelli Construction Co., Inc.

Michael V. Racanelli is Vice President of Racanelli Construction Co., Inc., one of the New York-Metropolitan region's leading construction management, general contracting and design/build firms. His responsibilities include serving in the capacities of Architectural Department Supervisor, Construction Manager, Project Executive and Director of Estimating and Sales.

Mr. Racanelli is a 27-year veteran of the commercial/industrial real estate industry, well respected by his industry peers and the general business community. He began his career in the field, rising through the ranks to field supervisor, project manager, estimator and ultimately to the executive level. Currently, he is a member of the Long Island Builders Institute and Long Island Association.

In addition to his professional career, Mr. Racanelli and his family are active in the local community. Among his philanthropic affiliations are the American Heart Association, St. John the Baptist Advisory Board, North-Shore Long Island Jewish Health System, Brookhaven Memorial Hospital Medical Center and the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation.

Mr. Racanelli received his B.S. degree in Finance, graduating Summa Cum Laude from Boston College.

He resides with his wife and four children in Brightwaters, NY.

School Nurses

Maureen Simpson, HS
Gina Roberts, MS
Susanne Hupscher, RJO
Nancy Pitaro, FS
Peggy Gilmartin, PV
Maryann Mueller, Floater

The school nurse. Many people impact the lives of our children, during their formative years; few remedy the body and spirit of our children as much as the school nurse. Teachers, counselors and administrators are acknowledged for their diligence in aiding our children's in their educational lives; but the school nurses deserve recognition for their concern in aiding our children's in both their physical and emotional lives. Our school nurses represent the first line of support and comfort for our children. Every day, they make sure our children are cared for, from runny noses and skinned knees to aching pains and bruised prides. The Kings Park Education Foundation is proud to honor Peggy Gilmartin, Sue Hupscher, Maryann Mueller, Nancy Pitaro, Gina Roberts, and Maureen Simpson.

Collectively, the nurses of Kings Park Central School District have amassed 62 years experience. They take care of our children, with a rare combination of expertise, professionalism, guidance, and empathy. We would like to thank them for all their hard work and recognize them as dedicated professionals. The nurses of the Kings Park Central School District make a difference in our children's lives, as well as make our children's educational experience, in Kings Park, special and memorable.
